COLONEL (RETIRED) DICK HOBBS

Richard "Dick" Hobbs is a retired combat infantry officer, professor, author, and businessman. He has worked, taught, and written in the international arena for over 50 years, including the Pentagon, the State Department, and in international operations for a major corporation. Dick graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1954 and entered the Infantry. He was selected as one of the original Olmsted Scholars and attended the University of Lyon in France receiving the degree of Docteur de l'Université in International Law and International Relations. He then spent two tours in Viet Nam and retired from the Army as a colonel after 27 years.

Entering the business world, he joined Teledyne serving in various positions for over 10 years including Vice President–International where he worked with the Departments of State, Commerce, and Defense and the Embassies. He established his own consulting firm, Service International Ltd. (for international business development), ran an export-import company, built a slot machine, and taught courses in international politics and international conflict for undergraduate and graduate students at the University of Nevada, Reno. He also served as Assistant Professor of International Relations on the faculty of the Department of Social Sciences at West Point.

He wrote several books including YOU AND THE NEW WORLD ORDER How You Can Influence the Alarming and Growing International and Domestic Problems and wrote a number of articles for Pharaohs magazine in Cairo. He hosted a call-in radio program, World In Conflict, for three years in Reno. His 2008 book, WORLD WAR IV AND BEYOND Islamofascism, the Third Jihad, and other threats to the USA, addresses the threats the USA faces in the 21st Century, and his new book DEATH BY A THOUSAND CUTS How We Are Losing the American Dream will be out soon.

His desire is to encourage people to take part in the political process and make their voices heard so that the active few cannot impose their views due to the apathy of the many.
